

Proxy voting in Austria

If you are interested to exercise your votes (only for bearer shares) through IVA, then you have to take the following steps:

1. Ask for a "Depotbestätigung" (Confirmation of Holding) from your depository;
2. Download from the company's homepage the proxy-form;
3. Fill out the proxy-form and send it together with a copy of the "Confirmation of Holding" (CoH) issued by your depository bank to IVA by mail to

IVA Interessenverband für Anleger
Feldmühlgasse 22
A-1130 V i e n n a
Austria.

e-mail to michael.knap@iva.or.at or fax: +43 1 876 33 43 39

Questions & Answers

1. What is the record date in your country, i.e. the date by which a shareholder must officially own shares in order to be entitled to vote at the general meeting?

The end of the 10th day before the AGM-day

2. Can a shareholder association itself receive a proxy or does the proxy need to be given to an individual?

The proxy can be given directly to IVA, who appoints an individual as proxy representative

3. Is there a difference for bearer and registered shares in the proxy procedure?

Bearer shares: information will be given in the official "Wiener Zeitung" and on the company's homepage additionally. The shareholder have to be active by asking for a "Depotbestätigung" from the depository of his shares (normally a bank)

Registered shares: Have not been offered by listed companies until today

4. What needs a shareholder to do if he wants to give a proxy to your association?

- ask for a "Depotbestätigung" from your depository;
- download the proxy-form from the company's homepage;
- fill out the proxy-form (and give instructions)

5. What is the last day, the bank/company needs to receive the proxy?

The representative has to show the proxy at least during registration to the AGM.

6. Are there any formal requirements for a proxy (e.g. wet signature)?

No formal requirements for a proxy, "Textform"=E-Mail or FAX is normally sufficient

7. Can proxies be given in English or is the local language required?

English proxies in general are accepted by Austrian companies.

8. Is there a minimum holding required for voting shares? What can shareholders do in such a case (e.g. join with other shareholders)?

No minimum holding requirements ("one share one vote")

9. Any other necessary/useful information for shareholders from abroad?

* In the agenda/convocation of the general meeting, each company has to explain the voting procedure for shareholders, including deadlines etc.

* There is no share blocking in Austria, i.e. shares are freely tradable between the record date and the day of the general meeting.
